GOVERNMENT PREPARING NEW CONSTITUTION FOR AUSTRIA

SILVER BILLS EXPLAINED BY SPONSORS

U.S. House Coinage Committee.

REMONETISATION AT 16 TO 1 ADVOCATED

SPECIAL TO CHINA MAIL.

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1904, Received February 16, 8.28 a.m.)

Washington, To-day.

The House of Representatives' Coinage Committee yesterday began the hearings of the Bills introduced by Mr. Scrugham and Mr. Dies.

Representative Scrugham, of Nevada, testified that the outstanding Senatorial silver advocates approve of his measure, which provides for the Government purchase of silver until it gains a purchasing power equivalent to 16 to 1 with gold. It is identical with Senator Wheeler's Bill.

He said that it was better than a straight 16 to 1 monetisation Bill because it authorised redemption by value instead of weight, thereby eliminating the possibilities that speculative holders would profit, exorbitantly.

Representative Dies said that his Bill would broaden currency's monetary base and increase the purchasing power of silver—using nations and benefit the farmers through placing an increased amount of currency in their hands.—United Press, per S. C. Gold Bar Co.

AMERICA'S COTTON PRODUCTION.

12,150,482 Acres Less
This Year.

Washington, To-day.

The 1934 American cotton programme has been finally decided, according to an announcement made by the Farm Administration.

Contracts have been signed to withdraw 12,150,482 acres from production.—Reuter.

MacCRACKEN FREED.

Pending Appeal Against Contempt Sentence.

Washington, To-day.

Mr. William MacCracken, who was Assistant Secretary for Commerce in the Hoover Administration, and who was sentenced to 10 days' imprisonment for contempt of the Senate in connection with the challenged air mail contract scandal in America, has been freed, pending his appeal.—Reuter.

SMALL DEPOSITS IN U.S. BANKS.

Insurance Bill Extended.

Washington, To-day.

President Roosevelt has submitted to the Senate Banking Committee, a Bill providing a year's extension to the temporary Bank Deposit Insurance Bill which permits the Government to guarantee small deposits in certain banks after examination by referees.—Reuter.

BRITAIN RETALIATES AGAINST FRANCE

TRADE DISCRIMINATION PROVED

BRITAIN CONTINUES TRADE WAR BUT IS READY TO NEGOTIATE

LONDON, TO-DAY.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, BY 169 VOTES TO 44, YESTERDAY APPROVED THE GOVERNMENT MOTION FOR RETALIATORY MEASURES AGAINST FRANCE IN CONNECTION WITH THE QUOTA DISPUTE AFTER THE PRESIDENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE, MR. WALTER RUNCIMAN HAD ANNOUNCED READINESS TO NEGOTIATE, CONDITIONALLY, WITH FRANCE, SECURING THE EARLY REMOVAL OF THE DIFFERENTIATION AGAINST BRITAIN AND BRITAIN REMOVING THE RETALIATORY DUTIES.

The Labour and Liberal members criticised the Government's action as precipitate and dictatorial. Others, including Sir Austen Chamberlain, stressed the need of an understanding and urged the utmost efforts for friendly negotiations.

Mr. Runciman, moved a motion to approve the import duties foreign discrimination order. This measure imposes a 20 per cent. "ad valorem" duty over and above the existing customs duties upon certain classes of goods produced and manufactured in France.

The order was framed with a view to effecting a reduction of imports from France equivalent to the reduction in British exports to France resulting from the French differential quota restrictions.

Mr. Runciman, who expressed regret that it should be necessary to move this order, traced the course of events for the last two years which had led up to it. He recalled that in November, 1931, the French applied a 15 per cent. surtax to British goods.

In February, 1932, the surtax was removed from coal, but in a Bill of the same year, the French import turnover tax was increased and that was also a discrimination against British trade.

At Lausanne, the French and British Governments promised not to discriminate against each other. There were, at that time, two taxes which had been imposed upon British imports and which had to be paid by British traders, namely, surtax and turnover tax.

Although Britain naturally objected in principle to receiving worse terms than any other nation, the objection was not on the ground of theory alone. Britain had most favoured nation rights with the French under the Convention of 1892, and expected that those undertakings would be respected, but the surtax and turnover tax both operated against Britain very severely.

He gave an instance, among other cases, of that of wireless apparatus, which was subject to a customs duty of 22 per cent., an exchange compensation surtax of 15 per cent., and an import tax of 8 1/4 per cent. making altogether 45 1/4 per cent. ad valorem.

"Although heavy, this would have been borne with equanimity if the French had not granted to Belgium relief not granted to British. Belgium imports paid 24.5 per cent as against the 45 1/4 per cent paid by the British. The same figure applied to Italy.

In the case of woollen and worsted tissues, Britain was called upon to pay 3,294 francs in taxes and Belgium and Italy only 1,696.

He claimed that the British Government had been very patient, considering how their traders suffered. They protested in August, 1932, and raised the matter on many subsequent occasions. Last autumn, the French Government were warned that if the representations were disregarded, the British Government would have to take action, and in November, a month's notice of a special duty was given and the French Ambassador was informed that the tariff truce would be denounced and they would thus be free of the Lausanne undertaking.

In November, the attention of the French Government was called to Britain's most favoured nation rights in regard to the quotas, which were then becoming important, at which the French proposed that if the claim for abolition of surtax were withdrawn, the British quota would not be reduced.

CAR FALLS INTO HARBOUR.

Runs Backward While Being Started.

MR. SEWELL'S MISHAP.

Mr. C. W. Sewell, manager of Messrs. Robertson and Wilson, reports that at about 1.30 this morning he went to start up his car, No. 2806, a two-seater Plymouth, which was parked in Commercial Road Central, near Blackie Pier.

The car, which was apparently in gear, ran backwards and hung half-way over the sea-wall. Later, while efforts were being made to pull it back on to the roadway, it fell into the harbour. No one was injured.

Britain's £7,500,000 battleship, H.M.S. Nelson, aground on the shingles at the entrance to Portsmouth. Despite many attempts to free her, she remained aground for nine hours. A destroyer is seen being utilised to create a wash while a tug is trying to pull the giant battleship into deep water.—(S. & G.).

DOUMERGUE RECEIVES VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Great Ovation For Premier.

"BALANCED BUDGET AND A STABLE CURRENCY"

Paris, To-day.
The French Chamber of Deputies has passed a vote of confidence in the new Government by 402 votes to 125. Sixty-eight members abstained from voting.

The whole Chamber, with the exception of the Communists, gave a great ovation to the Premier, M. Gaston Doumergue, as he entered. The Ministerial declaration was cheered phrase by phrase.

M. Doumergue appealed for a Party truce and emphasised the necessity of a balanced Budget and a stable currency as preliminaries to recovery and the suppression of unemployment.

M. Doumergue will insist on voting the Budget before March 1.—Reuter.

"STORM TROOPS" ARE SOLDIERS

French Disarmament
Reply To Berlin.

Paris, To-day.

That Nazi "Storm Troops" must be counted as soldiers is an outstanding feature of France's reply to the German Disarmament memorandum of January 19.

It flatly rejects all the German propositions and declines to answer the series of questions attached to the German note. The reply has caused disappointment in Berlin although it is noted with satisfaction that it does not close the door to further negotiations. Germany will reply in due course.—Reuter.

ATLANTIC CRUISE FOR U.S. FLEET.

Returning To Pacific Coast In November.

Los Angeles, To-day.

Admiral Sellers, Commander-in-Chief of the American Fleet, has announced that the Fleet will return to the Pacific Coast in November after the Atlantic cruise, which starts in April.—Reuter.

FRENCH DISARMAMENT NOTE CONSIDERED UNHELPFUL

"Repeats Allegations Already Disproved By Germany"

Berlin, To-day.
Government quarters in Germany consider that the French note delivered here on Tuesday evening, does not help to bring disarmament a step nearer solution, as it repeats the allegations already disproved by Germany.

It is noted with satisfaction, however, that the note does not close the door to further negotiations. Germany will reply in due course.—Reuter.

GERMANY AND CHINA

Closer Understanding Advocated.

Berlin, To-day.

Mr. Liu Chung-chieh, the new Chinese Minister to Germany, was the guest at a luncheon given by the China Club of German Industrialists yesterday. Many Government members and Nazi leaders and prominent industrialists were present.

Mr. Liu Chung-chieh stressed a desire for a closer understanding between China and Germany. China was now passing through a serious period, but would emerge triumphant, he said.—Reuter.

LOWER WAGES ON U.S. RAILWAYS.

Roosevelt To Limit Reduction.

UNEMPLOYMENT RELIEF
COSTS $950,000,000

Washington, To-day.

President Roosevelt has signed a Bill providing U.S. $950,000,000 for unemployment relief.

Following the managers of railways notifying him that a 15 per cent. reduction in the pay of railwaymen will begin on July 1, President Roosevelt has asked a railway executive to extend the existing 10 per cent. wage reduction agreement until December 31. He declares that conditions are not yet sufficiently stable to permit wage determination in regard to wages in the future.

He was sure the goal of national recovery would be reached, but such recovery would be accomplished. The emergency still existed.—Reuter.

"NO NAZI REGIME IN AUSTRIA"

Prince Starhemberg
Emphatic.

NO UNION WITH GERMANY
AT PRESENT

London, To-day.

"There is no possibility of a Nazi regime in Austria," declared Prince Starhemberg, Commander-in-Chief of the "Heimwehr," in an interview with the Linz correspondent of the London "Morning Post."

There was a brutality about Nazism, he said, which was repellent to the Austrian. The Anschluss could not be seriously considered at present. It would precipitate war.

They must now have an unchecked Dictator in Austria until the new constitution was in proper working order, he asserted.—Reuter.

TREATY WITH KING OF YEMEN SIGNED.

40 Years' Friendship Guaranteed.

London, To-day.

In the House of Lords yesterday Lord Plymouth, Parliamentary Under-Secretary for the Colonies, said that the treaty signed a few days ago between the British Resident Minister in Aden and the Imam of Yemen dealt with several matters which had caused friction for some years.

The treaty was for 40 years and guaranteed the independence of the King of Yemen and the maintenance of peace and friendship between the contracting parties.

Great credit, said Lord Plymouth, was due to the British Resident Minister for having at last negotiated the treaty.—British Wireless Service.

HUGE U.S. TREASURY ISSUE OVER-SUBSCRIBED

Washington, To-day.

The subscription for the United States Treasury issue of U.S. $800,000,000 worth of bonds for new financing, totalled U.S. $8,617,000,000.

The Treasury has now invited bids for U.S. $75,000,000 worth of 91-days Treasury Bills, dated February 21.—Reuter.

NATIONAL WELFARE

UPRISING REVIEWED BY DOLLFUSS

LOYALTY OF ARMY AND POLICE.

MAJORITY OF WORKERS
ABANDON SOCIALISM

Vienna, To-day.

The uprising in Austria was yesterday described as a criminal adventure and sheer madness, by the Chancellor, Dr. Engelbert Dollfuss, in an exclusive interview with Reuter.

He emphasised that, simultaneous with the outbreak of the revolt at Linz, where the Socialists fired on the Police, orders were issued for a general strike throughout Austria, but thanks to the bravery and loyalty of the Army, the Police and the Gendarmerie, the revolt had been overcome comparatively soon.

He expressed pleasure that a great number had voluntarily laid down their arms and had declared their future loyalty to the Government.

The fact that the order for the general strike was almost unheeded, was proof of the complete change in the mental attitude of the majority of workers, who had morally already abandoned Socialism and had accepted the Government's ideas of the new order.

He stressed that a new constitution was being prepared to safeguard the full rights of the working classes, to eliminate class warfare, and to co-ordinate all forces for national welfare.—Reuter.

"EXODUS OF JEWS FROM VIENNA"

Report Promptly Denied.

London, To-day.

The report that an anti-Semitic drive has started in Vienna and the mass exodus of Jews begun, is categorically denied in an official statement received at the Austrian Legation in London.—Reuter.

Questions In House Of Commons.

SIR JOHN SIMON RETICENT

London, To-day.

In the House of Commons yesterday the Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, was asked by the Acting Leader of the Opposition, Major G. R. Atlee, whether, in view of the Jews from Austria and the possibility of developments endangering European peace, he would take any action within his power to secure an early meeting of the League Council.—Reuter.

The WOMAN'S Page

New Colours For Blondes

Subdued Shades Of Turquoise.

MISTY BLUES, GREYS AND GREENS PROMINENT

What will be the most popular colours for women during the spring and summer? The choice, so far as wool is concerned, promises to lie between rust red, wine colour and dark blue, for these are the most prominently featured types in the Woollen Card that has been issued as a guide for 1934 by the British Colour Council.

In the first category we are to see "Carnelian red" and "Rusty," the deep wine tones are to be displayed as "Madeira" and "Riff red," while the deep blues find expression as "Cosack" and "Commander blue" navy.

So far as light woolsens or knitwear are concerned, however, there is likely to be a considerable popularity for "Bitter-sweet," which is a delightful shade of pomegranate.

"Sun Colours."

Later, it is expected that greys and beiges will be regarded as an excellent background for the new pastels. Finally, for the holidays, sports, and cruises, "sun colours," i.e., to make a bold bid for victory.

Prominent in the race for recognition will be green colours that are to include "Galad," "Frog Green," "Arden," "Pirate Green" (a vivid emerald green for sports wear), "Ripple Green," and "Kilnsey" (which are of softened tints).

Let It Rain!

Sometimes and utility are combined in this striking raincoat, worn by Jean Howard, screen player. It is of blue and white gingham checks and features a jaunty little cape that may be detached, at will. With it Miss Howard wears a silk felt hat tilted at a queer angle.

Sporty Plaid

For sports, choose red and black plaid, says Dame Fashion. And here, is obedient Betty Davis, screen player, doing that little thing. The coat and skirt are of plaid, the vest like jacket is black with red belt and the waist is white, trimmed with black.

But the most important newcomer is "Linden," a subtle spring green that is at once reminiscent of the English linden tree.

Hazy-Blue Greys.

Then there are the greys, that may be "hazy-blue," like the forget-me-not, under the title of "Esterella," or what may be called "cool greys," like "Penguin," "Mouge Grey," "Silver Blue," or "Tala Cloud," the yellows, and the browns.

None, however, should prove more attractive than the subdued turquoise tints which, as a new colour, will appear as "Cascade," "Capri," and "Lagoon."

These latter should make their appeal to the blonde (though they are definitely not for the multi-tude), but those who are not blondes will find "Persian Rose," "Debutante," "Coral Pink," "Flower Pink," and "Cloud Pink" remarkably pretty. They are all featured on the "Silk Card."

Incidentally, the wide range of blue silks shown for the spring suggests that this colour will again return to favour.

COTTON REELS IN WORKSTAND.

Simple Way Of Keeping Them Together.

The most practical method of keeping reels together in a cretine workstand is to thread them on a thin cord extended across it.

Saw a small loop of cord on each side of the stand, an inch below the wooden bars and two inches from the hem; then make a loop at each end of a piece of cord which is a little longer than the distance between the first-mentioned loops.

Thread the reels on this cord, leaving about two inches free, and safety-pin its loops to the other ones.

Eccentric Paris Hat Styles

The "Domino" And The "Bazard."

FEATHER ERUPTIONS

The "domino" hat, launched by a well-known Paris milliner, is made of inch-square checks of black gailac and antelope and is trimmed with a tantalizing tail-feather perched squarely at the top. Soft and pliable, the fur and antelope fit the form of the head at the back and the affair looks as if it might have been cut out of a checkerboard and in a triangular shape, the point of which touches the nape of the neck. There is a hole in the top like the crater of a volcano out of which the feather suddenly erupts.

The "Bazard" hat, as it is called, another creation of the same milliner, is a bonnet-shaped hat of green felt trimmed with two puffs of ostrich feathers in two shades of green, neither of which is the same as the hat itself.

A wide fold of felt turns back off the forehead so that you can see a bit of hair below it, and this fold sweeps on around the sides with a downward movement past the ears and then up again to the tips of the ears where the two puffs of ostrich take it in hand hold it in place.

The felt sweeps low on the neck but permits a few up-turning curls to creep over the edge. It not only keeps the ears warm but makes them burn when other folks see it.

Needlework In England

Flourishing Art Of The Countryside.

One of the most flourishing arts of the countryside is needlework. That is the discovery made by Lady Hytton and her colleagues in organising the exhibition of English Needlework, which was held last month the residence of the late Princess Royal, at 15, Portman-square.

Two of the counties producing some of the finest needlewomen of the day are Cheshire and Gloucestershire, from both of which beautiful samples of contemporary work were sent.

In Cheshire the needlework revival is largely due to Lady Frost, who, with the Duchess of Westminster's help, is running a guild to encourage high standards and the interchange of ideas.

Lady Hytton is one of the most expert needlewomen of Gloucestershire.

DIADEMS FOR THE HAIR.

From Simple Ribbons To Real Jewels.

Diadems for the hair vary from the twist of lame or velvet or both to the elaborate and costly ornament made of real and very precious stones.

If you can wear your hair with the engaging simplicity of Alice in Wonderland, you can keep it smoothed back from your brow with a semi-circle of tortoiseshell in the daytime.

If you are one of those people who are afraid that you yourself or the world in general will forget your initials, you can wear a band of copper, chromium-plated metal, real gold or coloured glass, with the said initials instead of any other form of adornment.

HERE'S A TIP FOR YOU!

Safeguard yourself against weather changes, sustain your general health by keeping your system clean and your digestive tract in regular working order. Pinkettes, the dainty little laxative liver regulators, give just the aid you need. They prevent constipation, dispel liverishness, sick headaches, biliousness, aid digestion. In brief, "Pinkettes keep you well." Of chemists everywhere.

Popovers

6 oz. flour, 2 eggs, 2½ gills milk, ½ gill water, jam or golden syrup, pinch of salt: Sift the flour into a basin with a pinch of salt, and make a well in the centre. Whisk up the eggs and add half the milk. Whisk up the eggs and add milk mixture and mix in the flour by degrees until there is a smooth batter. Beat it well, add the remaining milk and the water, and let the batter stand for one hour or more. Grease about 12 cast-iron moulds, and when ready to cook the popovers half fill the moulds with the batter. Place them in a fairly hot oven to bake until they are well puffed and nicely browned. They will take about half an hour. Serve popovers with jam.

Beetroot Soup

4 boiled beetroots, 1 onion, salt, pepper, 1 oz. of flour, 1 quart of rich vegetable stock, ½ pint of milk, 1½ oz. butter, 3 sticks of celery. Peel and slice the onion and beetroots, wash and shred the celery. Melt the butter in a pan, add the vegetables and stir for a few minutes without browning. Add the stock, bring to the boil, skim and simmer for 1 hour, then rub through a sieve. Return to the pan. Mix the flour smoothly with the milk and add to the soup and stir over gentle heat until boiling, season and serve. Hand croutons of fried bread. A little cochineal may be added to improve the colour.

Tomato Stuffed with Salmon and Peas

4 large sized tomatoes, ½ cup boiled green peas, ¼ cup shredded tinned salmon, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, and mayonnaise sauce. Peel tomatoes and scoop the inside, leaving a shell about a quarter of an inch thick. Sprinkle lemon juice over salmon and let stand 15 minutes. Mix peas and salmon with enough mayonnaise to make moist. Fill cavities of tomatoes with mixture. Serve on hearts of lettuce.

Haricot Beans au Gratin

1 lb. of boiled haricot beans, 1 dessertspoon chopped parsley, 1 oz. of butter or margarine, 1 egg, 1 or 2 tablespoons Carnation cream, 3 oz. of grated cheese, salt and pepper. Cook the beans until tender and remove any loose skins. Heat the butter and milk in a saucepan, put on the beans, sprinkle with the cheese and parsley and season well. Stir for 3 minutes, then put the mixture in a greased gratin dish, sprinkle over the grated cheese, put a few pieces of butter over the top and brown under the grill. Serve in the dish.

Boiled Lemon Pudding

½ cupful of chopped walnuts, 2 cups of breadcrumbs, 1 lemon, 1 cup sugar, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 eggs, milk. First mix the breadcrumbs, sugar and flour well together, adding the lemon, which should be the rind and the juice well strained. Mix thoroughly, moisten with the eggs and sufficient milk to make the pudding of the consistency of thick batter. Put in a well buttered mould and boil for 3½ hours. Turn it out, strew sifted sugar over and serve hot with lemon sauce.

HELP TO SIMPLE DAY DRESS.

Bracelet And Belt To Match.

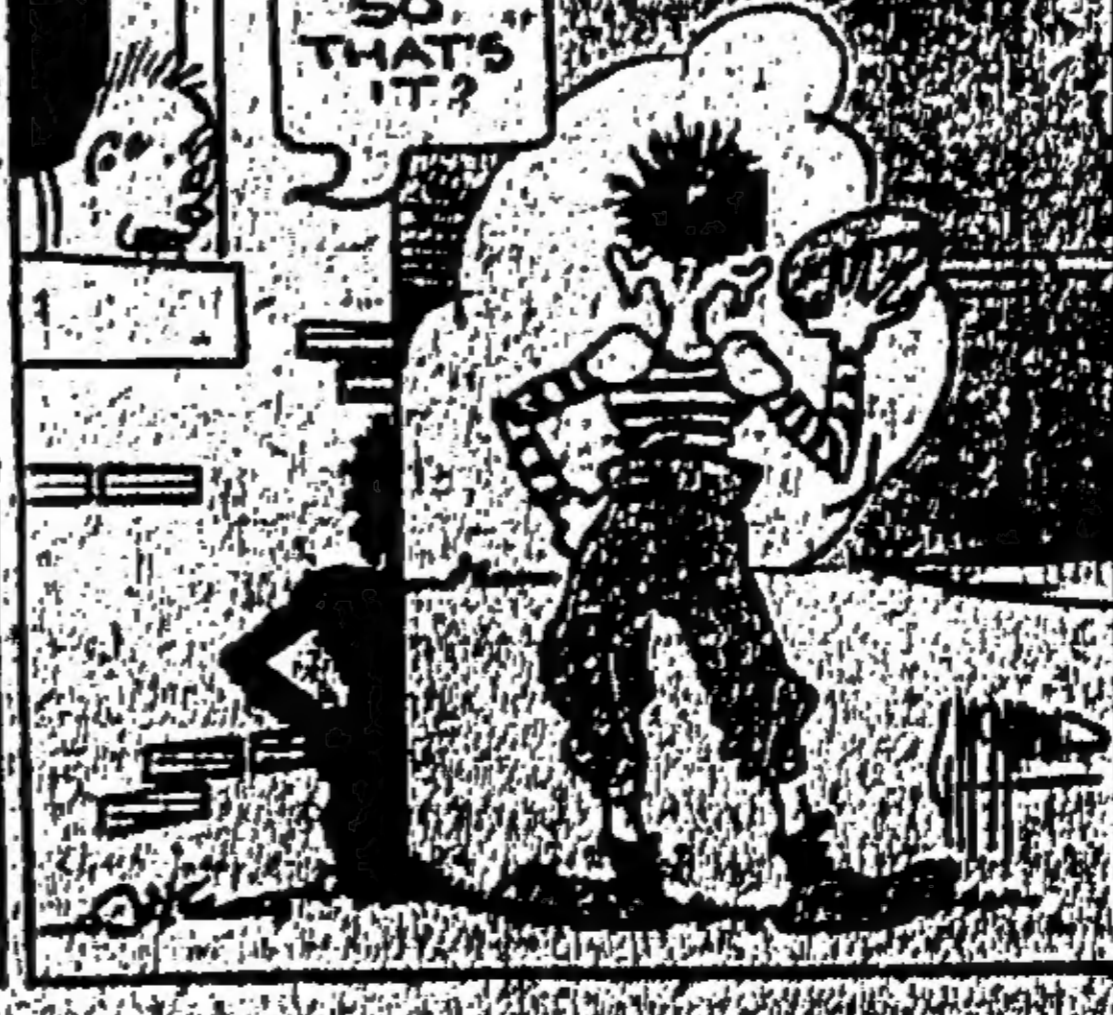

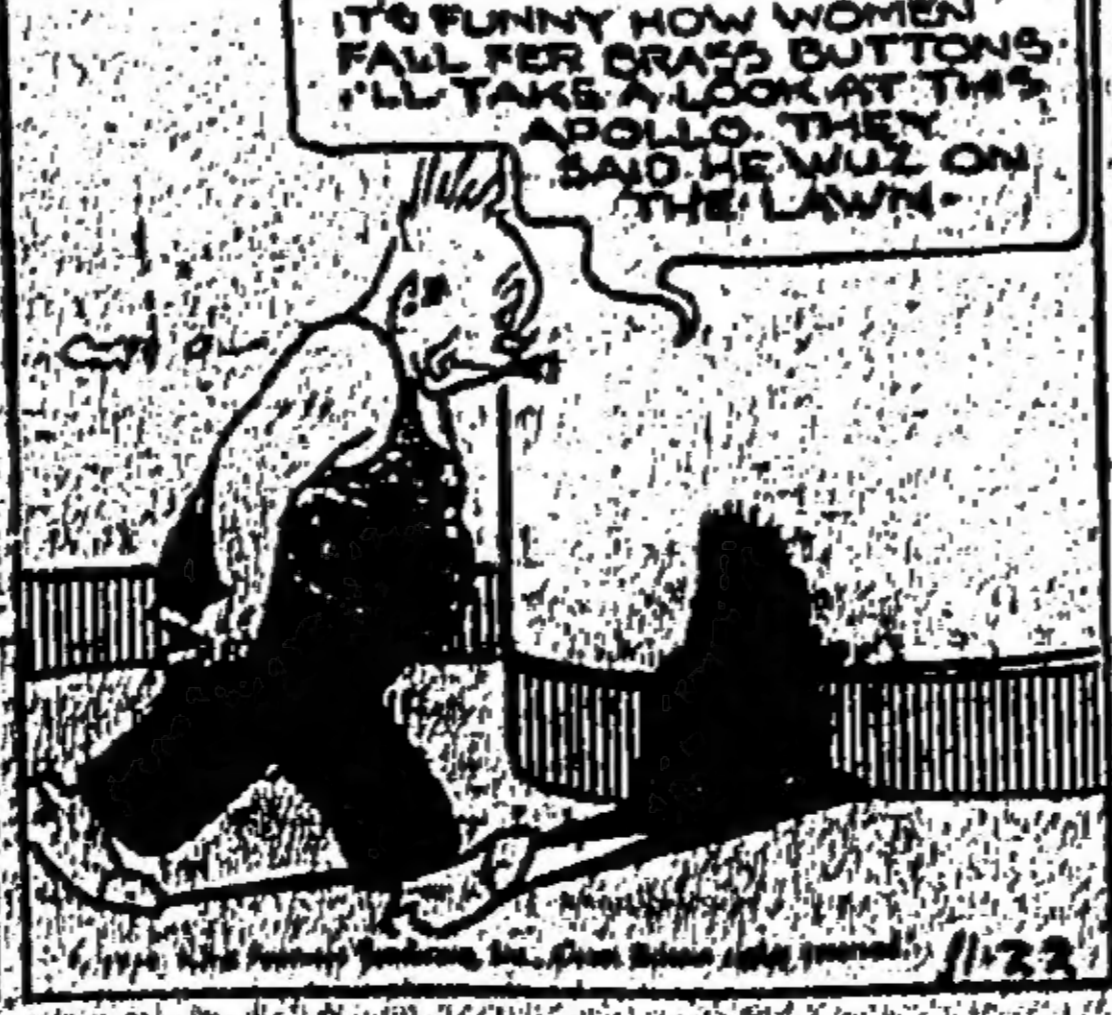

By way of enhancing the simple day dress or ensemble the very latest notion is to have bracelets to match your belt. Both bracelets and belt are usually noticeable for both size and design.

One most effective set seen was in leopard skin; but if you don't like wearing fur in these unusual ways you can have leather, copper, steel, or wood.

CULBERTSON

on CONTRACT

by Ely Culbertson.
World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

A LAY-DOWN SQUEEZE

Grand Slam contracts are always spectacular, and they are particularly so when they present close questions in play.

The following hand involves the Four-Five Notrump Convention to reach a very fine Grand Slam and at the same time requires the realization of a double squeeze position in order to make it.

North, Dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

NORTH:

S—A K Q 7 5

H—A K J

D—8

C—A K 10 7

WEST:

S—10 2

H—Q 8 7 6 5 4

D—Q J 6 5

C—6

SOUTH:

S—8 8 3

H—10 2

D—A K 9 J 4 2

C—Q 8

EAST:

S—J 6 4

H—9 8

D—10 7

C—J 9 8 6 4 2

The bidding:
North East South West
2S Pass 3D Pass
3S Pass 4D Pass
3C Pass 5S Pass
5NT Pass 7S Pass

The bidding was quite conventional up to the final bid by South, and this was based on absolutely sound reasoning. His partner had shown a rebiddable suit and then at a later time had bid clubs, showing another bid-dable suit. He therefore could not hold an absolutely minimum rebiddable spade suit, as then he would have preferred to show the clubs first. South therefore deduced either five to the Ace-King-Queen six to the Ace-King and with his tremendous side strength was justified in contracting for seven.

East's Open lead was a trump, which was probably as good an opening lead as any, on the bidding. This trick was won by Declarer in his own hand, and he immediately counted his top tricks;
they totalled twelve—that is, five in spades, two in hearts, two in diamonds and three in clubs. The thirteenth trick could be obtained either by a heart finesse a club finesse or a club drop. It was also possible to lead three rounds of hearts and run one in the Dummy.

All of these plays seemed very tempting, but actually none of them was necessary, as the Declarer soon realized. In a situation where extra tricks are possible in two side suits and re-entries are sure in both hands, a double squeeze is bound to develop.

Declarer, therefore, led out all his trumps, took one round of hearts and then followed with three rounds of clubs. At this point he was down to four cards—namely, two hearts, a club and a diamond. The Dummy was down to three diamonds and a heart and it was apparent that West could not hold three diamonds and two hearts. Any division of the cards would produce the same result, as one player could not hold on to enough stoppers. Declarer merely laid down his hand and claimed the balance of the tricks.

PROFESSOR OF LANGUAGES AS LABOURER

Former Lecturer In The Soviet.

FLED FROM COUNTRY IN 1920

Melbourne, Victoria.

Among the 80 sustenance workers transforming the foreground of the shrine of remembrance into a garden, is John Leopold Howard, 62, who, 15 years ago, was Professor of Languages at St. Petersburg's leading university.

Once he supped with Russian nobility; to-day he uses pick and shovel.

Born in England of wealthy parents, Professor Howard, as a boy of 14, went to Russia, where his father was the first British owner of a paper mill.

He was educated in St. Petersburg, now Leningrad, and gained lecturing diplomas in English, French and German.

He spent about 34 years in Russia, and graduated in languages. He was appointed lecturer at the St. Petersburg University and the Stannin Schule and the Corps de Page.

He later accepted service under the Soviet as a lecturer in languages, but, objecting to the methods of the Bolsheviks, he fled with his wife and family to London in 1920.

While in London he was appointed translator for the London law courts.

In 1925 he entered the service of Arcos, the Russian company, whose premises were later raided by the British police.

Lecturer in Perih.
Howard migrated to Western Australia in 1927 and settled on the land. Inexperience took its toll, and he secured a position as part-time lecturer in the Perth University. For economic reasons the University was forced to discontinue his services. He then moved to Melbourne, but could not secure a position in the Melbourne University, although it was realised that he was fully qualified to fill the post of lecturer in either French, German or Russian.

So to-day he is a sustenance worker.—Reuter.

MEMORIALS FOR "DEAD VILLAGES"

French Touring Club Raising Funds.

MARKING WAR RUINS

Paris.

The French Touring Club is running a fund to provide the "dead villages" on the Western Front with suitable tombstones and a memorial has been designed by a well-known sculptor, a granite stone on a base composed of the ruins of the village itself, with in front a plan of the vanished commune and the words:
"Here stood... destroyed in..."

Many Englishmen who remember the Somme battlefield in 1918 must have seen at a lonely cross-roads the pathetic inscription in English—
"Here was Villers Carbonnel."

The Board rose in the midst of a wilderness of buttercups with no trace of a village there, not even one brick standing on another. Villers Carbonnel has risen again on its old site, but there are at least 30 other villages, completely wiped out by the war, which will never be rebuilt.

Among them are Douumont, around which a harrowing war play has been written, and these others:
—Tahure, Beaucourt, Omes, Perthes-les-Hurlus, Fleury, and Vaux.

forming an "economically backward ministrator, whose survey of the country served as a basis for reconstruction plans.

SURGICAL FEATS IN AUSTRALIA

Unusual Cases Arouse Wide Interest.

CURING DEFORMED INFANTS

Sydney, N.S.W.

Three cases of infantile ailments, now engaging the attention of the authorities at the Renwick Hospital for Infants, and its outpatients' department, are creating more than ordinary interest because of the unusual circumstances surrounding them.

One of the patients—a baby girl —is a victim of paralysis of the muscles of the shoulders and the arm, caused by a lesion of the fifth and sixth cervical nerve-roots. The baby's right arm hung perfectly helpless from the shoulder. An "adropine" splint was applied, the baby even being compelled to sleep in it. Constant exercise and massage have formed part of the treatment, and the infant has been taught to use its hand and shoulder muscles. For three days a week, for six months, this treatment has been repeated, and the little patient, now about a year old, can take an offered sweet and put it in its mouth.

The second case is that of a bright little boy, who, at the age of fifteen months, had not attempted to sit up. Owing to nerve lesion, he had no balance. Re-education and spinal massage have brought him to the stage of perfect balance in a sitting position, and he is now being taught to walk. An unusual feature of this case is that the baby, on being put to bed, is literally harnessed in an iron cast.

The third case is also rare. A fine little boy, now fifteen months old, was born without the radius bones in the right forearm, and also without a thumb. A splint has been made for him, and the muscles are manipulated to keep them functioning, until he is old enough for an operation, which will probably take the form of the transplantation of a tendon.

It is frequently found that many babies who are backward in development can be brought to a normal condition by teaching them the use of their muscles.

Other unusual cases frequently come under the notice of the surgeons and physicians. Particularly babies who are born with some slight deformity or abnormality, which, if not immediately remedied, would doom them to remain cripples throughout life. An honorary masseuse attends three days of each week, and last year twenty-three cases were treated by her. Twenty-two of these infants were discharged in a normal condition, and the remaining child, having outgrown the age limit of the outpatients' department of the hospital was sent to another institution where little patients are victims of club feet.

The feet are encased in plaster by the surgeons, and ultimately the patients are handed to the masseuse to complete the work.

The Renwick Hospital and its allied outpatients' department are among the activities of the Benevolent Society of N.S.W.—Reuter.

H. K. FORWARDS CAUSE SHANGHAI'S INTERPORT RUGBY DEFEAT

NAVY GIVEN LEAVE TO PLAY SHIELD GAME

Club Juniors Benefit By Decision.

BORDERERS SHOULD BEAT SOUTH CHINA TO TAKE THE LEAD

(By OUTSIDE LEFT).

A Charity Football game in aid of the Cheer-O Club's funds, three postponed Second Division fixtures, the Junior Shield Semi-final encounter between the Club and the Navy, and five Third Division games are on this week-end's soccer programme.

The Navy, the holders, have been granted permission to play off their Junior Shield soccer tie against the Club this week-end in view of the pending departure of ships for the North.

This has in some manner given the Club team a better chance of entering the Final for Manning's Shield, their skipper, is due to leave for Home on February 21 and the game was originally down for the following Saturday. Now that he is able to play the Club defence should be able to stand up to the bustling Navy attack.

Club May Surprise

The Club may surprise once again—they have so far beaten the Borderers, Lincolns and Artillery teams. With the inclusion of Baldwin in the Club's attack, and Farrow playing up to his true form between the sticks, there is every chance.

In the League programme there are interesting ties such as the Second Division clash between the Borderers and South China for the leadership, the Borderers being a point in arrears of the Chinese.

Both teams possess a fast combination of forwards, but the result will rest entirely on the defence and with this in mind I think that the Borderers will triumph.

The Lincolns, who are the only team in the last five years to hold a 100 per cent. record in the Third Division should retain their record standing at the expense of the Air Force whom they meet at Chatham Road.

The following is my forecast, giving the result of previous games this season in brackets:

Shanghai Secure Big Lead

Northerners Well Ahead In Interport Series.

HONG KONG'S one and only victory on Shanghai soil was recorded on the last visit—in November, 1932, when George Rodgers' eleven surprisingly defeated Shanghai by the odd goal in seven. Of the six games played in the Colony, Shanghai can lay claim to three victories, their last one (in 1933) providing one of the biggest interport sensations when Collet scored a brilliant last-minute deciding goal. Collet again led the Shanghai Interport eleven yesterday.

FATAL RESHUFFLE OF COLONY TEAM

INEXPLICABLE ACTION CAUSES SENSATION

SHANGHAI SCORE FOUR GOALS IN TEN MINUTES

AN INEXPLICABLE RESHUFFLE IN THE INTERMEDIATE LINE OF THE COLONY'S INTERPORT FOOTBALL TEAM CAUSED ONE OF THE MOST SENSATIONAL COLLAPSES IN THE HISTORY OF THE INTERPORT SERIES WHEN SHANGHAI DEFEATED HONG KONG BY 6 GOALS TO 2 YESTERDAY AFTER BEING OUTPLAYED UNTIL TEN MINUTES FROM TIME. THE DRAMATIC CHANGE IN THE GAME WAS CAUSED BY THE CHANGE OVER OF LEUNG WING CHUI AND BELTRAO, THE CENTRE HALF, AND BY THE FACT THAT STRANGE MOVED UP INTO THE FORWARD LINE.

SHANGHAI THEN SCORED FOUR GOALS IN TEN MINUTES AGAINST A GREATLY WEAKENED DEFENCE. THIS WAS SHANGHAI'S NINTH WIN IN THE SERIES OF 14 GAMES.

The game was played in perfect sunny weather before a crowd of 12,000 people. Hong Kong outplaying Shanghai until ten minutes from time when for some inexplicable reason, Beltrao and Leung Wing Chui changed places. The result was that Hong Kong's machine-like attacking movements were brought to an abrupt close and Suen Kam Shun, the former Hong Kong Interporter, gave Shanghai the lead. Thereafter Shanghai went further ahead as a result of a weakened defence caused by Strange's introduction among the forwards.

McHardy was very safe between the sticks and could not be blamed for the goals that passed him, while Strange was brilliant in defence, his sure-kicking being a feature of the game.

Leung Wing-chui fully justified his selection as he was easily the best of the halves, while Tam Kong-pak and A. V. Gosano were most conspicuous among the Colony forwards.

Shanghai settled down quicker than the Colony team and after 30 minutes play, Collet, who gave Shanghai their Interport win here last January, gave Shanghai the lead with two quick goals.

Hong Kong, who were then playing brilliant football, scored their first through Ridley, and Tam Kong-pak scored the equaliser with a brilliant header from a centre from Hocquard.

After the interval Hong Kong completely dominated play, missing four glorious chances by inches, until they made the fatal mistake of changing over Leung Wing-chui for Beltrao ten minutes from time, this resulting in Suen Kam-shun giving Shanghai the lead.

Then Strange for some unknown reason moved up among the forwards to weaken the defence, Shanghai going through again at regular intervals through Malin, Suen Kam-shun and Malin.—Reuter.

The following were the teams: Shanghai—Folletou (A.S.F.); Dallo-way (Worcester); Turner (S.M.P.); Remedio (A.S.F.); Gash (S.M.P.); Costa (A.S.F.); Tsou (Three Cultures); Chen (Three Cultures); Collet (A.S.F.); Archer (Worcester); Malin (Worcester). Hong Kong—A. McHardy (Police); Gao Ailen (Artillery); S. Strange (Club); (captain); Leung Wing Chui (S. China); N. Beltrao (St. Joseph's); C. Pile (Police); B. Gosano (St. Joseph's); Tam Kong Pak (S. China); A. V. Gosano (St. Joseph's); Ridley (Lincolns); and Hocquard (Lincolns).

A. V. GOSANO'S NINTH INTERPORT.

Brilliant Record Against Shanghai.

GASH'S FOURTH IN SUCCESSION

A. V. GOSANO, Hong Kong's most brilliant Interporter, yesterday played in his ninth Interport game, having previously represented the Colony for eight consecutive years from 1925 to 1933, with the exception of 1932 when he was selected but was unable to make the trip.

In all his Interports, excepting 1930 when he played inside-right to "Lolly" Goldman, Gosano has led the Colony attack.

Stanley Gash made his fourth consecutive appearance as an Interporter for Shanghai when he skippered the northern side yesterday. He has played in seven Interport games.

Sid Strange made his fifth appearance in Interports, while Berle Gosano is the only other Colony player now in Shanghai who has taken part in four Interports.

THREE MORE SHANGHAI RIDERS ARRIVE IN COLONY

Derby Favourite's Jockey

Mr. D. S. Li, who is to ride for Messrs. Kong Bros. stable, Mr. S. Y. Sun, who will probably ride either Soldier of China or Soldier of Britain in the Derby, and Mr. S. W. Pan, who has been engaged by Mr. Li Tuo Fong, arrived from Shanghai by the President Hoover yesterday. They were out on the track this morning. The other two Shanghai jockeys in the Colony are Mr. Y. S. Chang and Mr. F. Marshall.

LINGNAM BEAT SAINTS BY ODD GOAL

Dogged Determination Wins Game.

LOCAL TEAM SCORE FIRST

With barely a quarter of an hour to go, the Lingnam University turned the tables on St. Joseph's by the odd goal in three after being a goal in arrears for three quarters of the game in their soccer clash at Caroline Hill yesterday afternoon.

The Saints made several changes in their team, Delgado, of the Recife and an old St. Joseph's boy, coming in at right-half instead of Lawrence, while A. M. Omar led the forwards in the absence of Gomes. Fernandez was moved from left-half to the left wing, while Sahban made his first appearance for two months, at left-half.

The opening minutes of the game saw the visiting forwards sweep down on the Saints' goal but Souza and Gomes frustrated a dangerous line with well-timed kicks.

After ten minutes the Saints surprisingly opened the scoring when Elias swept down the right wing to flash across a perfect centre, which Omar crashed into the back of the visitors' net.

The Chinese visitors strove hard to equalise, but opportunity after opportunity went abeying through lack of combination among the Lingnam inside forwards.

COLONY V. TIENSIN TO-MORROW.

Tientsin May Challenge Shanghai With Win.

To-morrow the Hong Kong eleven meet Tientsin, who shared six goals with Shanghai, in the final game in the Triangular Interport series, and should Tientsin win they will tie with Shanghai.

On Sunday the Combined Chinese of Shanghai will meet a Combined Interport team drawn from Shanghai, Hong Kong and Tientsin.

NORTHERNERS PLAY SEVEN FORWARDS

5 THREEQUARTERS SPOIL OPEN PLAY

MARKED superiority at forward against a pack who scrummaged the 3-4 formation was responsible for Hong Kong beating Shanghai by a penalty goal and a try (6 points) to a penalty goal (3 points) in the Interport Rugby encounter at the Valley yesterday. This was the eighth match in the series and Hong Kong have now five wins to Shanghai's three.

The Colony forwards were seen at their best, D. McLellan, the skipper of the side, R. O. F. King, D. A. Cumming, and I. H. Bradford being the most outstanding. Our backs were not up to Interport standard and it was only our superiority at forward that determined the issue.

As a game from the spectator's point of view play was very scrappy, and the fact that Shanghai played five three-quarters behind a beaten pack tended to spoil any chances of open play. The tackling was very keen, but it is generally accepted that had the Shanghai backs seen more of the ball they would probably have won the match for the northerners.

PEERS hooked extraordinarily well for Hong Kong, but the ball was slow in coming out and darted for the line from a tight scrum. His service to Bidwell was perfect.

The first thrill in the game was provided when Lammert was bundled into touch by Grieve two yards from the Shanghai line after the winger looked to have a certain try. Robertson then had an opportunity to land a goal from a penalty, but his kick from the touch-line was just wide.

Shortly after Turner sold the dummy and the ball went out to Ferguson who gave a return pass to King, who almost went over near the posts. It was a good movement and deserved a score. Shanghai opened the scoring when Bidwell dropped a magnificent goal from the half way line with a penalty kick for off side play on the part of the Hong Kong forwards. Robertson should have levelled the scores when entrusted with a kick just outside the '25, but was again unsuccessful.

Hong Kong Equalise Hong Kong were, however, rewarded when McLellan landed a good goal from a penalty for off-side play against Poole. Bidwell attempted a drop at goal early in the second half, but the ball did not rise sufficiently. Silby was then hurt as the result of a collision with McLellan, but both resumed after a minute.

The winning try was obtained by Robertson, who cleverly sold the dummy when Meeke came round the "blind side" of a scrum ten yards from the Shanghai line. McLellan failed to majorise the effort from a difficult angle.

In the closing minutes Bidwell attempted another drop at goal, and many thought that he was successful with a very high kick, but the ball was again unsuccessful.

Blackwood was the best of the Shanghai wingers, being exceptionally fast, while Grieve was the best of the three centres.

Tingle's Great Display Billy Tingle, a veteran playing in his first Interport, was one of the outstanding players on the

HANKOW BEAT SHANGHAI FIFTEEN

First Half Lead Proves Decisive

The Shanghai team that visited Hankow lost the Interport by 10 points to 3 yesterday.

Hankow's quick healing from the tight scrums and the good backing up of the forwards in the loose paved the way to success.

Newcomb opened the scoring when he went over for a try which he converted, and then White went over for Newcomb to kick his second goal. In the second half Gardner kicked a brilliant penalty goal for Shanghai.—Reuter.

GAME AGAINST AUSTRALIANS

It is understood that a Combined Hong Kong fifteen will play a return game against the Australian Universities touring party on the Friday preceding the Annual Race Meeting. In the first encounter the Colony team beat the conquerors of All-Japan by 11 points to 6.

A most enjoyable Interport Rugby Dance was well attended at the Peninsula Hotel last night.

Holland Martin's Plucky Knock

A plucky innings by Lt. Holland Martin, the Services wicket-keeper, provided the only feature in the game in which the Club beat the Services by 10 wickets after just under three hours play yesterday at the H.K.C.C.

With the Services commencing the day's play 127 runs behind the Club's first innings total, Holland Martin went in at 52 for 2 and scored 68 out of 79 in 74 minutes. He hit five boundaries in a careful innings. A. C. Beck, the Club fast bowler, had 11 for 64 to give him a total bag of 11 for 64 in the match.

The feature of the game was the debut of C. K. Hill Wood, the Oxford Blue and Dacryphire, fast left-hand bowler. Possessing a peculiar action, he appears to bowl off the wrong foot, he is faster than Beck, both through the air and off the pitch. He bowled at top speed on Wednesday, keeping just short of a length, but bowled much slower yesterday when he took Lt. Walker's wicket at a cost of 13 runs. He enjoyed no luck on several occasions just shaving the balls on a

SERVICES DESERVE TO TRIUMPH MACAO DO NOT SHOW INTERPORT FORM

HALFORD AND HILL ARE OUTSTANDING

(BY STICKS).

THE Combined Services accomplished what Hong Kong failed to do when they recorded a narrow but well deserved victory over Macao in the hockey match at King's Park yesterday, winning by the odd goal in 7.

The Services played together as a well balanced team, and it was this factor that enabled them to lead at the interval by 2 goals to 1.

Macao did not show the same spectacular stickwork as on the previous day, and mishits were frequent. They played a strong and determined game, however, and quickly reduced the Services' lead and within the final minutes of the game came within an ace of equalling, a shot actually hitting the post and bouncing out.

The game was inclined to be very rough towards the end of the match and several players left the ground nursing injuries.

Lt Alexander Sinclair opened the scoring for the Services and shortly after scored another fine goal. Angelo, however, reduced the lead for Macao just before the change-over with a well-timed shot.

Lt. Bartlett placed the Services further ahead shortly after the restart, but pressing hard Macao obtained their second goal through Costa, who scored after having previously missed a good opportunity.

Lt. Donald then made a spectacular run down the right wing before flashing the ball across to Lt. Bartlett who netted the Services' fourth goal.

Several positional changes made in the Services team after this goal. Lt. Comdr. Hill moved to left-wing with Lt. de Winton inside left and Lt. Bartlett led the forwards, Alexander Sinclair moving back to right half.

POLICE TRIUMPH

Almost Assured Of Mamak Title.SAINTS LAST HOPE OF
THE RADIO

THE Police retained their 100 per cent. Mamak Hockey Tournament record yesterday when they beat the Central British Association by a goal scored by Wass from the opening bully-off at King's Park yesterday.

Their triumph has now almost assured them of the title held by the Radio for the last two seasons.

Two notable absentees from the C.B.A. team were T. S. D. Whiteley, their outstanding forward, and W. G. Johnson, another forward. Whiteley was away in Swatow, and Johnson failed to put in an appearance.

This was the C.B.A.'s second defeat—they lost to the Radio, the champions, on January 28.

The Radio are two points behind and have played an extra game, but as they do not meet the Police again the latter are in a very sound position.

The only chance for an alteration in the leadership lies in the possibility of the St. Andrew's Club beating the Police. This game is due to take place next month.

A Second Defeat.

Immediately after the Police match, the C.B.A. met the 9th Battery, and lost by 2 goals to 1 to provide the Battery with their second win in six games!

Lt. Laine and Leach scored for the Battery, and J. J. King netted the only goal for the C.B.A.

KOWLOON INDIANS DRAW WITH ONLY TEN MEN

United Surprised

PLAYING with a depleted team, the Kowloon Indians' Tennis Club did very well to share the points with the United Hockey Club in a Mamak Tournament match in Kowloon yesterday, the score being 8 goals all, after four goals had been shared in the first half.

Pinto (2), and M. Hussain scored.

Macao attacked strongly and Ramalho went within an ace of scoring, but Lt. Comdr. Hill was penalised in the circle for stick interference and in the bully-off with Costa was beaten in an exciting duel, Costa netting the Macao's third goal.

Players Injured

J. Ferreira left the field for a minute with cramp, and Angelo left the field with an injured knee, while Lt. Comdr. Hill was badly injured on the hand when he was hit with a stick.

MACAO TEAM LEAVE COLONY

The Macao team left for the Portuguese Colony by the 5.30 p.m. boat yesterday.

Macao had very bad luck not to score when Ramalho broke through to shoot, the ball striking the post and re-bouncing for Hollingsworth to make a quick save.

Lt. Comdr. Hill, the Services' captain and Pte. Halford were the outstanding men in the local team. The latter, playing his third game in one day, was a tower of strength, his tackling and feeding of his forwards being brilliant.

The forward line were accurate in their shooting, but did not combine well. Lt. Donald and Lt. Eaden were only conspicuous in the first half, but Lt. Bartlett and Lt. Alexander-Sinclair made no mistake about matters when in front of goal.

Hollingsworth again played a sound game, though his 'kicking' was inclined to be inconsistent.

Almada cost Macao a goal for the same thing when Lt. Bartlett scored the fourth goal, a mis-kick being quickly followed up and netted.

Costa was the pick of the Macao forward line, Ramalho, at centre-forward, being too well marked by Halford to be dangerous.

Lt. Comdr. Leigh, R.N. and Major Campbell (Punjab) refereed. Pte. Hollingsworth, Lt. Metcalfe and Lt. Comdr. MacVicker, R.N.; Lt. Cdr. Hill R.N. (captain), Lt. Bineale and Sgt. Halford; Lt. Donald R.N., Lt. Eaden R.N., Lt. Alexander-Sinclair R.N., Lt. Bartlett R.N. and Lt. de Winton.

Macao: Almada; J. Rodrigues, M. Cardoso; L. Ferreira, J. Ferreira, A. Alrosa; P. Nolasco, L. Costa, P. Ramalho, H. Rosario and A. Angelo. On Wednesday Macao shared two goals with Hong Kong in the first interport staged in the annals of Colony hockey.

CUMBERLAND HELD BY THE BRUCE

H. M. S. Cumberland drew with H.M.S. Bruce in a friendly hockey match at King's Park yesterday, sharing two goals. Juniper scored for the Cumberland, and Pearce replied for the Bruce in the second half.

ed for the Kowloon Indians, and Winch (2) and Gubbay netted for the United.

Messrs. E. A. Pierce & Co Report:

It seems that the course of the market since the end of last week has demonstrated that the irregularity was not fundamental and was simply a temporary break. So long as general business news continues favourable, with principal business indices showing increased activity, we think that the buying side is relatively safe.

Wheat: Market dull. The strength of securities and cotton helped by European political news restrains pressure, although the Liverpool market was not disturbed. Cotton: The rally attracted Southern selling and there was quite a bit of realising. There was some uneasiness due to delay in the passage of the Bankhead Measure. Silver: The general undertone was steady in sympathy with the stocks market and on continued talk of remonetisation possibilities. The banks were big sellers.

Business Done: 2,980,000 shares.

COMBINED CHINESE TO PLAY REST

Charity Soccer Match On Sunday.

PREDOMINANCE OF SERVICE PLAYERS IN REST XI

THE Combined Chinese will clash with the Rest of the Colony in a charity football game in aid of the Cheer-O Club funds, on Sunday afternoon on Club ground.

The Rest forwards will be very strong with Mathias on the right wing partnered by Ward of St. Joseph's. Stevens of the Police will lead the forwards while E. Strange of the Club and Seal, a former Interport left-winger, will be in support.

The Chinese team will probably consist of Wong Wing (South China) in goal, Li Tin-sang and Lau Man (South China) as the two backs, and Lee Kwok-wai (S. China), Hor Cho-yin (Athletic) and Tong Kwan (S. China) as the intermediate line.

This defence has already been tried once against a full United Services combination and has come through with flying colours.

Yeung Shui-yick (South China) will probably fill the outside right position with Ho Ka-keung (Athletic) as his inside man, while it is almost a certainty that either Fung King-cheong or Pau Ka-ping, both of South China, will lead the forwards. In either case the other will be inside left, while Fung King-yiu of the Athletic is already a certainty for the left wing position in view of his outstanding game for the Combined Chinese against the Interport eleven a week ago.

The speed of the Chinese forwards against the excellent defence of the Rest's intermediate line should decide the day, and judging from the last display of the Combined Chinese they should win.

The following is the selected Rest team:

Cord (Kowloon F.C.); Mullane (S.W.B.) (capt.); Morrison (S.W.B.); Podmore (S.W.B.); Thompson (E. Lane); Bias (Kowloon F.C.); Mathias (S.W.B.); Ward (St. Joseph's); Stevens (H.K. Police); E. Strange (H.K. Club) and Seal (Artillery).

Reserves: Rodgers (R.A.), Hynes, and A. Duncan (H.K. Club).

The second half saw the Chinese Combine better, and the St. Joseph's goal was subjected to a continual bombardment, the ball going anywhere but the intended mark.

With fifteen minutes to go Kuang sent the ball into the Saints' goalmouth for Kwok to score with a first-time drive which left Marquee standing.

Five minutes later the visitors took the lead when Kwok leveled in from a corner kick.

The visitors played very good football and were more unlucky than anything else. Their dogged determination resulted in a meritorious win.

Lingnam University: J. Wong; K. Y. Lo, W. Y. Au; P. C. Hui, T. P. Wong; C. K. Wong; L. S. Kwok, W. T. Ko, C. C. Chai, L. L. Sue, J. Huang, St. Joseph's: Marquee; Souza; Gomes; Delgado; Costa and Sahban; Elma, Ward, A. M. Omar, Rocha and Fernandes.

In their opening encounter on Wednesday Lingnam University were defeated by South China by four clear goals.

OVERTAKING TRAMS AT WHITFIELD

Two Europeans Fined $5 Each.

MISS B. FAIR'S SECOND CONVICTION

The adjourned summons against Miss D. B. Fair, of Messrs. Deacons, for driving in a dangerous manner on January 29, by overtaking a moving tram-car in Whitfield, North Point, a controlled area, was again before Mr. E. W. Hamilton at the Central Police Court this morning.

Mr. W. A. Mackinlay, counsel for the defence, said that the lady in question was actually Miss Betty Fair and not Miss D. B. Fair. He said that the offence was admitted but asked for a discharge with a caution.

Traffic Sergeant Clarke said that he saw the car overtake a moving tram-car near A. King's slipway. There was no other motor traffic about at the time and beyond its being a technical offence he did not think there was any danger caused.

Mr. Mackinlay submitted that many motorists knew that it was an offence to pass a stationary tram but not a moving one.

The Magistrate said that the evidence showed that the present was not a serious offence but, as the defendant had a previous conviction, and at the same time the regulation regarding the Whitfield area must be enforced, he felt that he must impose a fine of $5.

Mr. F. Bond, pleaded guilty to a similar offence of overtaking a tram-car at Whitfield and was fined $5. He had a clear driving record.

CAR AND RICKSHAW COLLISION.

European Fined $10.

$15 COMPENSATION FOR COOLIE

Mr. A. Mielentz, of Felix Villa, who was summoned at the Central Police Court this morning for failing to exercise care and caution while driving his motor car in Pokfulam Road on February 6, was stated to have run into a rickshaw from behind, the coolie sustaining minor injuries.

Mr. Mielentz pleaded guilty and said that it was due to a misunderstanding.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of $10 and also awarded a sum of $15 for damage to the rickshaw and $5 as compensation to the coolie.

RECKLESS DRIVING CHARGE.

Summons Dismissed.

SPEED ALLEGED PROVED IMPOSSIBLE

A summons against Mr. D. L. Prophet, of Messrs. Linstead and Davis, for reckless driving in Pokfulam Road on January 24, was dismissed at the Central Police Court this morning by Mr. E. W. Hamilton, as a result of a test made last week on Mr. Prophet's car, it being found that the car was incapable of 43 miles an hour, the speed claimed by the Police.

The test, which was carried out by the Traffic Department, proved that the car was only capable of 36 miles an hour.

MOTOR ACCIDENT LAST NIGHT.

Chinese Lad Struck By Taxi-Cab.

A Chinese youth, Fung Chan, aged 16, was taken to the Government Civil Hospital late last night in an unconscious condition, having been struck down by a taxi-cab. Lo Wan-yin, driver of taxi No. 67, reported that he was driving along Queen's Road West at 11.30, when Fung Chan suddenly ran out into the road, colliding with the car.

Probate has been granted to Li Shi-concubine, and to Siu Kin and Siu Ping-yan, merchants.

Tramway Company Meeting

$10,000 MORE PROFIT.

Sir Henry Pollock Wants New Road Rushed.

Sir Henry Pollock said:—I have much pleasure in seconding the motion for the adoption of the Report and the Statement of Accounts, from which shareholders will be glad to note that the final dividend has been increased to 85 cents, making a distribution of $1.35 for the year, 1933.

The following facts are also noted with gratification, namely:—

1. That the net profit has increased by nearly $10,000.

2. That the track, rolling stock and overhead equipment have all been maintained in excellent condition.

3. That we are clear of the motor-bus business, which, for reasons fully detailed by the Chairman, turned out so unsatisfactorily.

4. That the Directors have in the past and are still framing a financial policy, in preparation for meeting the necessity of a largely increased Royalty to the Government from October, 1933.

5. That our investments have increased by nearly two lakhs of dollars over the figure at which they stood at the end of the year, 1932.

Whilst I fully appreciate the fact that the Hong Kong Government has many conflicting claims on its funds, I must join in the regret which has been voiced by the Chairman that such slow progress is being made in pushing through to completion the new 190-foot road (or rather one should call it now, the 76-foot road) from Causeway Bay to Ming Yuen.

In this connection the Chairman has quoted from a speech of mine made in the Legislative Council on September 19, 1929, to which I would add that, in what I then said, I was speaking on behalf of all the Unofficial Members of that Council.

The speedy completion of this most necessary artery of traffic (in order to do away with a dangerous bottle-neck and to enable the Tramway Company to double their track) has been urged since by the Unofficial Members (see Hansard 1932 at p.162) and I take this opportunity of submitting that it is a wasteful finance, because it involves the loss of many years of interest on capital, for the Government to take so long in completing this road, which, in its present unfinished condition, is of no value whatever to the public.

I would, therefore, venture to suggest, for the consideration of the Government, as Reserves are now ample, that it should take supplemental votes in Council for the purpose of pushing on to completion, as speedily as possible, this very necessary public work which Lunar Calendar Still Being Observed.

OFFICIAL ORDERS DO NOT AFFECT MASSES

The Government order from Nanking, that the Chinese should abolish the observance of the Lunar New Year, seemed to have had no effect in Hong Kong, where it was celebrated as usual, if not with greater ceremony, yesterday and on Wednesday.

Although the Chinese New Year has been discarded by practically all Chinese Government institutions, schools and societies throughout the country, it was still as usual by the mass of the people, shops being closed and private parties and feasts being held in most homes. Institutions like the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce, South China Amateur Athletic Federation, the Chinese Y.M.C.A. and other important clubs held no special celebration, as these had observed New Year according to the Gregorian calendar.

Local Chinese newspapers have suspended publication and are making holiday for some days; most of them will make no appearance until Saturday morning. A general air of festivity prevailed throughout the Colony, the Chinese national flag being everywhere in evidence. Cracker-firing, which began on Tuesday evening, continued unabated the whole of Wednesday and the greater part of yesterday.

The New Year fairs, especially that in Wanchai were in full swing up to midnight on Tuesday, the vendors seemingly doing better business than ever.

Thousands of Chinese residents of the Colony left for their villages and homes up country during the past few days. Everyone was in holiday mood. On Wednesday morning a group, consisting of more than 20 boys from the Chinese "Y" Club went on a bicycle tour of the New Territory, while picnic parties were frequent. Local theatres did unusually good business on Wednesday, and yesterday, while in the evening the dance-halls were crowded with the younger set of Chinese.

I hope to see finished during the term of office of the present Governor. The road might then appropriately be named "Peel Avenue". (Applause).

The motion was put to the meeting and unanimously carried.

Mr. Felix A. Joseph was confirmed as a Director, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. J. E. Joseph on February 23, 1933.

Mr. A. H. Compton and the Hon. Mr. C. G. S. Macle were re-elected to the Board of Directors on the proposal of Mr. Frank Austin, seconded by Mr. A. C. Greaves. Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matlow were re-elected auditors for the ensuing year at a remuneration of $2,500 on the proposal of the Hon. Mr. T. N. Chan and seconded by Mr. H. C. B. Way.

MR. R. G. SHEWAN LAID TO REST

53 Years Prominent In The Colony.

NOTABLE GATHERING AT GRAVESIDE.

The remains of the late Mr. Robert Gordon Shewan, who met with a fatal accident on Wednesday, were laid to rest yesterday at the Colonial Cemetery, Happy Valley, in the section reserved for old residents of the Colony.

The deep respect and affection in which the late Mr. Shewan was held were shown by the large gathering that attended his last rites, heads of most of the prominent firms of Hong Kong and old residents of the Colony.

Mr. I. W. Shewan, nephew of the deceased, was chief mourner, with Mr. A. L. Shields, one of the principals of Messrs. Shewan, Tomes and Company. The Rev. E. G. Powell, Minister of the Union Church, Kennedy Road, conducted the funeral at the graveside.

Among those present were the Hon. Mr. C. Gordon Mackie, the Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, Messrs. T. H. R. Shaw, J. P. Warren, J. Scott Harston, J. H. Taggart, T. E. Pearce, S. H. Dodwell, B. Wylie, F. P. Franklin, A. Hicks, W. Logan, H. Dreyer, A. Whitkamp, H. Seth, G. C. Moxon, W. A. Dowley, L. Lammert, Geo. P. Lammert, W. S. Bailey, D. J. Lewis, D. L. King, R. Pestonji, C. F. Mendham, K. E. Greig, John Fleming, W. N. Fleming, R. Hancock, A. H. Potts, J. R. L. Stanton, J. L. MacPherson, W. McLean, J. Dick, H. R. Sturt, W. Stewart, C. G. Wood, Allen Keith, C. W. L. Cole, E. D. Labrousse, W. E. Hale, A. A. R. Botelho, J. W. C. Bonnar, M. H. Turner, K. S. Morrison, M. F. Key, D. S. Robb, R. W. Lee Jones, T. Hynes, N. V. A. Croucher, Sverre Berg, D. E. Clark, R. K. Valentine, A. B. Raworth, D. Mc Campbell, V. Goulbourn, G. A. Pentreath, H. S. Hills, J. Coulthart, Ip Lan-chuen, J. M. R. Xavier, Noel Braga, J. P. Souza, Gomes, Fung Chik-man, Yip Chung-ko, G. A. Low, A. H. Abbas, M. Gomes and others.

The late Mr. Shewan first came to the Colony in 1880, to join the firm of Russell and Company, then one of the largest concerns in Hong Kong. Eleven years later the firm was reorganised and was taken over by Mr. Shewan and Co. In 1895, Mr. Shewan was joined in partnership by Mr. C. A. Tomes, and the firm then adopted its present name of Shewan, Tomes and Co.

Besides being a director of several of the largest companies of the Colony, he took a prominent part in the affairs of the Hong Kong Chamber of Commerce and served two terms on the Legislative Council, from 1902 to 1906 and again from 1917 to 1919.

He is survived by his widow and his nephew, Mr. I. W. Shewan.

PASSING OF MRS. STEPHEN GOGGIN.

Perhaps Hong Kong's Oldest Resident.

DEATH AT 93.

The death occurred yesterday at the Victoria Hospital of Mrs. Margaret Goggin, widow of the late Captain Stephen Goggin, who predeceased her by some 25 years, and mother of Mr. W. G. Goggin, local Manager of the Bank Line, who is at present at home on leave.

The late Mrs. Goggin, who was 93 years of age was probably the oldest resident of the Colony. She had spent more than 50 years in Hong Kong and had not left it for some 35 years.

She is survived by two sons, both of whom are now in England. A daughter died some 14 years ago. The funeral will take place to-day, passing the monument at 5 p.m.

If your boiler is still consuming coal or coke, it demands someone's constant attention.

Someone has to shovel tons of fuel, remove ashes, which means increased expenditure. In addition someone has to spend extra time keeping things clean — further expense that could be saved.

A building that is either too hot or too cold affects both health, temperament and efficiency.

The "Electromatic" fully automatic Oil Burner is in reality automatic weather. It provides an even heat at whatever temperature you choose, which is maintained automatically, day and night, summer and winter. It starts itself, runs itself and stops itself as though a man stood controlling it for 24 hours a day.

It is absolutely safe and reliable, clean and economical; it means that all your heating and hot water problems have now ceased to exist. The "Electromatic" Oil Burner deals with them all efficiently and consistently.

If you are experiencing trouble with either central heating or domestic hot water installations, let us tell you what it will cost to change over to fuel oil, and further, what it will cost to run.

If you are installing new plants don't decide on solid fuel until you have seen the "Electromatic" in operation.

Regulation And Prices.

A strong controversy has waged over the British Government's policy of restoring remunerative prices by regulating supplies. The argument of the critics seems to be that since both supply and demand combine to dictate the level of prices, it is no use thinking that prices can be regulated by the regulation of supplies alone. The argument is theoretically true, because it is impossible to regulate demand in any state of society where personal liberty survives. But it is incomplete: it is based upon a misapprehension of the Government's policy; and it is not reinforced by any constructive alternative. In the first place if a producer cannot obtain as much for an article as it would cost him to produce another, he will not indefinitely continue to produce. If such a state of affairs is not remedied, the world's supplies of such articles pass suddenly from abundance to real scarcity, and the change, assuming that demand does not miraculously lessen at the same rate, is accompanied by violent fluctuations in prices. Now this prospect does not inspire horror in one school of economists generally associated in the past with the Liberal Party, but to every one else it seems unnecessarily cruel alike to the producers who are from time to time flung wholesale into bankruptcy, and to the consumers who lose in the periods of scarcity, what they gain in the periods of abundance.
Cheapness at any price is an inhuman doctrine. Moreover, when supplies reach a certain degree of abundance and the movement of the world's supplies even of perishable goods has become so rapid as to make production anywhere competitive with production everywhere else, the cruelty cannot be avoided merely by national reorganization to make national production cheaper. Nor is it generally, or even widely, true that a producer threatened with bankruptcy can turn easily to another form of production, for abundance is widespread. It ought, therefore, to be common ground that prices should reach at least replacement value—that is to say, a level at which the efficient producer can continue in production. Criticism, therefore, based upon the doctrine that cheapness is the only virtue may be discounted. The next question is: "What does replacement value mean in Britain?" Owing to national policy—in the past comparatively high wages are prevalent in, and the purchasing power of these wages has risen considerably even since 1923. It is clear, therefore, that replacement value means a price level which will enable these wages to be paid. Otherwise the level of wages in Britain being exceptionally rigid, there will be great and growing unemployment. Wages are not the only element in the cost of production, but they are an important and often a preponderating element; and it is broadly true that those who are indifferent to the course of prices stand condemned of indifference to the course of wages or to the volume of employment —though better organization admittedly can affect other elements in the cost of production.

Full account is taken in the Government's policy of this fact, and efficiency is prescribed as a condition of protection in many measures, notably in the Import Duties Act, in the Agricultural Marketing Act, and in the measure of temporarily stabilized protection granted to the iron and steel industry upon the condition that it ultimately produces a reorganization scheme. The difference between the Government and their critics upon this point is a simple one. The critics appear to believe that reorganization can take place while industries are exposed to the full blast of the competition resulting from world abundance. The Government believe that effective reorganization can best be carried out under some kind of shelter. Those who contrast fairly the experience of 1929-31 with the experience of 1931-33 can have little doubt which view is right. The next criticism is more serious. Higher prices, it is said, lessen demand. It is not true even to-day that demand is fully satisfied; and policy ought to aim at expanding the satisfaction of demand. But though this criticism is more plausible, the answer to it is complete. In the first place the scarcity which must follow the widespread bankruptcies produced by letting prices slide is not the way to stimulate demand. Secondly, during the passage from abundant to scarcity increasing unemployment lessens demand.
Thirdly, the producer is also a consumer—a fact which appears in the incontrovertible statement that if agriculture is not prosperous agriculturists cannot buy urban products. Again it is no part of the British Government's policy to force prices up beyond the reach of the general public.
It will be remembered that the ideal price level has been defined as replacement value—and much can and has been done in the way of narrowing the gap between wholesale and retail prices without affecting the latter.
Lastly, in so far as steadier prices at the defined level increase employment, demand is stimulated. There remains the question whether other methods are better suited to what ought to be the common ideal of keep-

Population Standstill

The persistent decline in the German birth rate is causing grave concern to the Nazi authorities.
Figures published by the Director of the Reich Statistical Office show that in 18 cities the death rate now exceeds the birth rate.
In 1932 there were 12, and in 1931 only six.

The 18 include Berlin, Hamburg, Munich, Leipzig, Dresden, Frankfurt, Breslau and Nuremberg.
The agricultural population still has a birth surplus of 13 per 1,000.

Follow My Leader

The decline is due partly to economic pressure and partly to high rents and limited housing accommodation in the cities.

The figures are to be used by the Nazis for another great marriage drive.

That is why one may read daily in any German newspaper personal advertisements of which this is a typical example:

"My leader wishes me to marry.
I therefore seek a Protestant, pure-Aryan girl, blonde, slim and possessed of private means."

high and flexible tariffs would be better, but this system does not seem to work in other countries, and tariffs are not so flexible in practice as in theory, nor so that supplies should be regulated

THE PRINCE CHARLIE
OF CHINAEVENTFUL LIFE OF

MOMENTOUS REIGN PROBABLE

(By Basil Murray.)

The bleak hills of the Golden Horn above Vladivostok are hard bound with frost. An ice-breaker ploughs its way into the great port, keeping open the channel for the soya-bean ships into the open Pacific. Out over the Sea of Japan the ice is solid, snow-covered, crinkled, as if the waves froze in motion.

At Nagasaki men are working overtime. The great Mitsubishi shipyard is busy. The ships they are building are ships of war.
Some, they say, are ordered for Chile. The little, wiry, yellow men who swarm over the scaffolding do not care who gave the orders. The ships will be ready for the service of the Emperor if he needs them, and he may need them soon.

In a solid Victorian house at Kew two people are waiting anxiously for news from the East.
They are Sir Reginald Johnston, K.C.M.G., tutor to the boy who was the last Manchu Emperor of China, and the boy's own sister, who is his guest.

This youth of destiny was born in 1906, when the childless Tetsung sat on the Dragon Throne at Peking. His father, Prince Chun, was the Emperor's brother.

He was named Pu-yi, the first part of the name being common to all male members of his family of the same generation. When he was two his uncle died, and he became the tenth emperor of the Manchu dynasty.

The title chosen for his reign was Hsuan-Tung. A Chinese emperor may not be called by his personal name during his reign. While he is on the throne he is known only by his "reign-title."

But the reign of Hsuan-Tung was brief.

Three years after he had succeeded, on the day after his sixth birthday, he was forced to abdicate by the Republican, Yuan-Shih-Kai.
His father, who had been acting as Regent, made good terms for him.
He retained the right to use the Imperial title Ta-Ching-Hung Ti, which means "Emperor of the Great Pure Dynasty." He kept his palaces in Peking, his jewels and personal possessions. And he received a pension of 4,000,000 dollars a year from the new Government.

So far another thirteen years, all through the war, he continued to live in great state in Peking. In 1919 Sir Reginald Johnston, then in the British Government Service, was appointed his tutor, and went to live with him in the Imperial palace.

Feng Evicts Henry Pu Yi

The crash came in November 1924, when Feng-Yu-Hsiang, the so-called Christian general, made his coup d'etat in Peking. He was determined to destroy the old regime. He tore up the agreement safeguarding Pu-yi's imperial privileges, ejected him from his palace, and made him a virtual prisoner in his original home. Embassies from the north arrived at Tientsin.
The Court was favourable. Pu-yi was willing to undertake the enterprise. On a grey November day two years ago the ex-Emperor boarded a Japanese coasting steamer and slipped out of the harbour at Tientsin, an Eastern Prince Charlie, in quest of a new kingdom.

Tramway Company Meeting

Second Best Year Yet Experienced

TOTAL DIVIDEND OF $1.35 PER SHARE PAID

The annual general meeting of the Hong Kong Tramways, Limited, was held this morning in the board room of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Company.

Mr. A. H. Compton, Chairman of the Company, presided, other directors present being the Hon. Mr. C. G. S. Mackie, the Hon. Sir Shouson Chow, Mr. Chou Po-nien, Mr. Felix A. Joseph and Mr. A. B. Stewart, represented by Mr. R. Gordon. Mr. L. C. F. Bellamy, M.C., A.M.I.E.E., M.Inst.T., General Manager, and Mr. W. F. Simmons, F.C.I.S., Secretary, also attended. Shareholders present were:—Hon. Sir Henry Pollock, Hon. Mr. T. N. Chau, and Messrs. P. S. Cassidy, O. el Arulli, F. C. Hall, N. V. A. Croucher, Frank Austin, A. C. Kennedy, H. C. B. Way, A. C. Greaves, Chua Seng-chon, J. D. Danby, W. H. Choy and W. Allen.

Chairman's Speech.
The Chairman said:—"We have again had a very good year. Although Traffic Receipts are down by $43,052.40 the figure of $2,039,638.90 is the second highest in our history and the net Profit has increased by nearly $10,000. Total passengers declined from 35,542,000 to 34,963,000 and although the car-miles operated increased from 3,325,000 to 3,427,000 total operating costs for the second successive period showed a slight decrease on those of the previous year.

The year commenced in very promising fashion. January returned the highest traffic receipts of any previous January, and April returned the highest traffic receipts of any previous April. The decline in the number of passengers carried over the year shows a percentage of 1.6, but over the last eight months it was 2.85 compared with the last eight months of the previous year. Thus, so far as his Company is concerned, the difficult times through which the Colony is passing date definitely from the month of May last year. It is perhaps worthy of mention that a record was created on January 25, last year, (China New Year's Eve) when we carried 162,947 passengers, exclusive of monthly ticket holders.

Stock in Good Condition.
Track, rolling stock and overhead equipment etc. have all been maintained in excellent condition. The rails of both tracks between Western Street and Whitty Street about 600 yards—were renewed throughout. Six more cars were equipped with new trucks of 8'6" wheel-base and fitted with electric motors of the most modern type. Altogether 63 tramcars have now been provided with long wheel-base trucks.

The Chairman informed you last year that there had been a very considerable increase in the number of passengers carried on our Shaikwan route but pointed out that the frequency of the service it is possible to provide on that route is limited by the remaining lengths of single track. It was explained that handicaps in this respect from which we now suffer would be removed as soon as we were enabled to complete construction of our double track on the new 100' road.

As the North Point and Quarry Bay areas continue to develop the necessity for rapid completion of this new road becomes—in my view—not only of importance to this company but of considerable importance to the Colony in general.

It is a matter of very keen regret to me to have to inform you that present indications compel the conclusion that several years may yet elapse before we are enabled to lay our double track on the new road. In substitution for the old track on that portion of the road from Ah King's Slipway to North Point which Sir Henry Pollock described in 1929 as "one of the most difficult and dangerous roads in his Colony." On the other hand, as a large proportion of the other Government road paid in August last. Your Directors now recommend a Final declaration of 85 cents per share, absorbing $582,500.00 and making a total dividend for the year of $1.35 per share.

This, a dividend of 15 cents (or 12½%) higher than for the previous year will leave a balance of $146,691.58 to be carried forward to next year, against the sum of $186,918.95 brought into account from 1932.

I now propose—
"That the Report of the Directors and Statement of Accounts of the Company, as presented, for the year ended 31st December, 1933, be adopted, and that a Final Dividend of 85 cents per share for the year 1933 be and is hereby sanctioned."

To-day's Short Story.

A Chaparral Christmas Gift

By O. Henry.

THE original cause of the trouble was about twenty years in growing.

At the end of "at time it was worth it."
Had you lived anywhere within fifty miles of Sundown Ranch you would have heard of it. It possessed a quantity of jet-black hair, a pair of extremely frank, deep-brown eyes, and a laugh that rippled across the prairie like the sound of a hidden brook. The name of it was Rosita McMullen; and she was the daughter of old man McMullen of the Sundown Sheep Ranch.

There came riding on red roan steeds—or, to be more explicit, on a paint and a flea-bitten sorrel—two woodcocks. One was Madison Lane, and the other was the Frio Kid. But at that time they did not call him the Frio Kid, for he had not earned the honours of special nomenclature. His name was simply Johnny McRoy.

It must not be supposed that these two were the sum of the agreeable Rosita's admirers. The branches of a dozen others clung to their bits at the long hitching-rack of the Sundown Ranch. Many were the sheep-eyes that were cast in those savannas that did not belong to the flocks of Dan McMullen.

But of all the cavaliers, Madison Lane and Johnny McRoy galloped far ahead, wherefore they are to be chronicled.
Madison Lane, a young cattleman from the Nueces country, won the race. He and Rosita were married one Christmas Day. Armed, hilarious, vociferous, magnanimous, the cowmen and the sheepmen, laying aside their hereditary hatred, joined forces to celebrate the occasion.

Sundown Ranch was sonorous with the cracking of jokes and six-shooters, the shine of buckles and bright eyes, the outspoken congratulations of the herders of kine.
But while the wedding feast was at its liveliest there descended upon it Johnny McRoy, bitten by jealousy.

That suggestion, Mr. Runciman said, was rejected, and on November 23 he made a statement in the House of Commons that retaliatory measures would be undertaken against the surtax and turnover tax which had been continued the whole of that time unaltered and undiminished, although Belgium and Italy, and possibly other countries, had been given a lower scale of duties.
Mr. Runciman said that the duties imposed under the order were estimated to be as much, in aggregate, as the amount of the injury to British trade done by the French discriminatory order, namely £500,000 a year.

The British Government were, however, prepared to open a discussion in regard to Anglo-French trade, with particular reference to the French quota policy, Mr. Runciman said.—Reuter and British Wireless Service.

Sir John Simon replied. "The grave and most distressing events in Austria of the past few days are being closely watched by His Majesty's Government."

"The House is aware that the Austrian Government, in connection with its international position, has decided to appeal to the League."
"As regards the international situation I am sure the House will appreciate the necessity of the rule that one country cannot claim to interfere in the internal affairs of another."

DENTISTS' SMALL TALK

America Now Calls It Applied Psychology.

CONVENTION AT PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Dental "small talk," that constant chatter with which the dentist tries to keep the patient's mind off the buzz of the drill and the pull of the forceps, is now glorified in America under the name of applied psychology. Delegates to the annual convention of the Western Pennsylvania Odontological Society extracted that bit of wisdom from an address by Dr. C. A. Whitmer of the University of Pittsburgh. "Don't argue, speak in a low-modulated voice, use good English and select your subjects from a psychological point of view designed to allay fear," Dr. Whitmer told the dentists. "A great many people go to a dentist believing they are in acute pain. They really are not—but there is no reason to tell them so. Just treat them as if they were in pain for a while and then, when you say, 'Now, that doesn't hurt a bit, does it?' They will think they feel fine. Of course, if the patient is really in pain—Well, that is where you apply psychology."—Reuter.

Unusual Train Wreck in Japan

A billboard and heavy snow washed away the supports of the roadbed of the Shin-Etsu line of the National Railway at Kashiwazaki, Japan, with the result that a train crashed down the steep embankment, necessitating the use of ladders to rescue workers. Three were killed and ten injured.

The Kid reined in his mustang and sat in his saddle, thoughtful and grim, with dangerously narrowing eyes. The rich, sweet scent touched him somewhere beneath his ice and iron.

"I don't know what I've been thinking about, Mex," he remarked in his usual mild drawl, "to have forgot all about a Christmas present I got to give. I'm going to ride over to-morrow night and shoot Madison Lane in his own house. He got my girl—Rosita would have had me if he hadn't cut into the game. I wonder why I happened to overlook it up to now?"

"Ah, shucks, Kid," said Mexican, "don't talk foolishness. You know you can't get within a mile of Mad Lane's house to-morrow night. I see old man Allen day before yesterday, and he says Mad is going to have Christmas doings at his house. You remember how you shot up the festivities when Mad was married, and about the threats you made? Don't you suppose Mad Lane'll kind of keep his eye open for a certain Mr. Kid? You plumb make me tired, Kid, with such remarks."

"I'm going," repeated the Kid, without heat, "to go to Madison Lane's Christmas doings and kill him. I ought to have done it a long time ago. Why, Mex, just two weeks ago I dreamed me and Rosita was married instead of her and him; and we was living in a house, and I could see her smiling at me, and—oh, h—l, Mex, he got her; and I'll get him—yes, sir, for on Christmas Eve he got her, and then's when I'll get him."

"There's other ways of committing suicide," advised Mexican. "Why don't you go and surrender to the sheriff?"

"I'll get him," said the Kid. Christmas Eve fell as balmy as April. Perhaps there was a hint of far-away frostiness in the air, but it tingled like seltzer, perfumed faintly with late prairie blossoms and the mesquite grass.

When night came the five or six rooms of the ranch-house were brightly lit. In one room was a Christmas tree, for the Lanes had a boy of three, and a dozen or more guests were expected from the nearer ranches.

At nightfall Madison Lane called aside Jim Belcher and three other cowboys employed on his ranch.

"Now, boys," said Lane, "keep your eyes open. Walk around the house and watch the road well. All of you know the 'Frio Kid,' at they call him now, and if you see him, open fire on him without asking any questions. I'm not afraid of his coming around, but Rosita is. She's been afraid he'd come in on us every Christmas since we were married."

The guests had arrived in droves, and by ten o'clock the house was making themselves comfortable in the parlors.

The evening went along pleasantly. The guests enjoyed the dinner, and Rosita's excellent supper, and afterward the men scattered in groups about the rooms or on the broad "gallery," smoking and chatting.

The Christmas tree, of course, delighted the youngsters, and above all were they pleased when Santa Claus himself, in magnificent white beard and furs, appeared and began to distribute the toys.

"It's my papa," announced Billy Sampson, aged six. "I've seen him wear 'em before."

Berky, a sheepman, an old friend of Lane, stopped Rosita as she was passing by him on the gallery, where he was sitting smoking.

"Well, Mrs. Lane," said he, "I suppose by this Christmas you've gotten over being afraid of that fellow McRoy, haven't you? Madison and I have talked about it, you know."

"Very nearly," said Rosita, smiling, "but I am still nervous sometimes. I shall never forget that awful time when he came so near to killing us."

"He's the most cold-hearted villain in the world," said Berky. "The citizens all along the border ought to turn out and hunt him down like a wolf."

"He has committed awful crimes," said Rosita, "but I—don't—know. I think there is a spot of good somewhere in everybody. He was not always bad—that I know."

Rosita turned into the hallway between the rooms. Santa Claus, in muffling whiskers and furs, was just coming through.

"I heard what you said through the window, Mrs. Lane," he said. "I was just going down in my pocket for a Christmas present for your husband. But I've left one for you, instead. It's in the room to your right."

"Oh, thank you, kind Santa Claus," said Rosita brightly. "Oh, thank you, kind Santa Claus," said Rosita brightly.

Rosita went into the room, while Santa Claus stepped into the cooler air of the yard.

She found no one in the room but Madison.

"Where is my present that Santa said he left for me in here?" she asked.

"Haven't seen anything in the way of a present," said her husband, laughing, "unless he could have meant me."

The next day Gabriel Radd, the foreman of the X O Ranch, dropped into the post-office at Loma Alta.

"Well the Frio Kid's got his dose of lead at last," he remarked to the postmaster.

"That's so? How'd it happen?"

"One of old Sanchez's Mexican sheep-holders did it—I think of it as herder. The Greaser saw him riding along past his camp about twenty o'clock last night, and was so scared that he up with a Winchester and let him have it. Finest part of it was that the Kid was dressed all up with white Angora skin whippers and a regular Santa Claus outfit from head to foot."

The evening went along pleasantly. The guests enjoyed the dinner, and Rosita's excellent supper, and after-

CHINESE SCHOOL IN SYDNEY

Only Two In Whole Of Commonwealth.

AUSTRALIAN WOMAN TEACHES BRITISH CURRICULUM

Sydney, N.S.W.

In the centre of Sydney's Chinese community an Australian woman is to be found instilling into Orientals the fundamentals of a British education. Although Miss Winifred Davis, of Strathfield, near Sydney, has had several tempting offers to leave Australia and resume her profession in China, she prefers to continue her teaching work in a Campbell-street dwelling. She conducts the only school of its kind in New South Wales, and there is only one other like it in the Commonwealth. The other school is in Melbourne, Victoria.

For nine years Miss Davis has been in charge of the school, which is not subsidised by the Government, although her class is subject to State inspection. "I was prevailed upon to open my class when Chinese were excluded from a city school more than nine years ago," stated Miss Davis. "I had gained a smattering of the Chinese language, and carried on my work satisfactorily. However, there are times when my pupils cannot talk to each other, so confusing are the many dialects of their country. You can imagine my difficulty. Since the immigration laws were altered I do not have any more adult pupils."

Challenging Looks.
Intrusion into the schoolroom causes little girls to cease their hum of activity, and cast dark eyes away from nursery rhymes. Youths with the blood of Chinese ancestry flowing through their veins gaze at you in an expressionless, challenging manner. "They resent your presence," Miss Davis' will tell you. "I have learnt to know their ways a little, and those unemotional eyes fixed upon you indicate mild displeasure. The school mistress introduces you to her more advanced pupils, Bo Kwal and Bo Sun. "Bo Kwal has changed her name to Lily during her stay in Australia, smiled the teacher, stopping before a seven-year-old girl. "That's her brother over there, Bo Sun. He prefers to leave his name unchanged. "It is strange that I experience no difficulty in teaching them to speak correctly. Good English. "Their words are in no way slurred; in fact, their English is superior to that of some Australian children I have taught." Miss Davis said she did not discuss religion with her pupils. Some of their fathers paid her

POSTAL INCOME RISING

Canberra, F. C. T.

Although there was a decrease of £3,952 in the Customs revenue of the Commonwealth in October, 1933, compared with that for October, 1932, the collections for the four months of the present financial year, £11,208,957, are £140,124 greater than those for the corresponding period in 1932—£11,068,833. The collections for the four months are £475,957 in excess of the estimate for the period. For the same four months the postal revenue of the Commonwealth, £4,250,042, was £161,231 more than that for the corresponding period of 1932, (£4,088,811), and exceeded the Budget estimate by £42. For October, 1933, the postal revenue amounted to £1,087,494, an increase of £83,206 on that for October, 1932 (£1,004,288).—Reuter.

GLADYS COOPER ON BROADWAY.

New Play.

HEADS ALL-BRITISH CAST

New York.

Miss Gladys Cooper is to make her debut in the Broadway stage this February, in a new play, entitled "Nearer Than I," written by Mr. Keith Winter who also wrote "The Rats of Norway." The latter was produced in London last season.

Miss Cooper heads an all-British cast in which the other principals will be Miss Adrienne Allen and Mr. Raymond Massey. The play will be produced by Mr. Max Gordon. "Nearer Than I" will open on February 5th, at the Royal Alexandra Theatre in Toronto and will play there a week. After its run in New York it will be seen in London.—Reuter.

age in the joss-house, others were devout converts to Christianity. Rev. Leung, of the Sydney Chinese Presbyterian Church, was one of her pupils in the years gone.

Most of the children now at the school had been brought out by their fathers from China to be educated.

Very rarely were the mothers brought out. The fathers were called upon to satisfy the Customs Department that they had the means necessary to maintain the child during his schooling. When he completed his education the young Chinese left Australia.—Reuter.

FISHERMEN WITNESS SEA DRAMA

Shark Attacks Seal
In Shelter.

MAURAUDEER HOOKED BY ANGLER

Port Elizabeth (Cap Province). Breakwater anglers were eye-witnesses of a minor ocean tragedy. A man-eating shark had been observed cruising about inside the new harbour area, and many attempts were made to hook it.

The anglers also noticed a well-grown seal sunning itself on a strip of shingle between the two northern jetties.

The seal took to the water and a minute or two later there was a swirling agitation and the seal emerged with a huge chunk missing from its back, evidently having fallen a victim to the shark.

The seal swam painfully to the breakwater where it dragged itself on to one of the lower tiers of blocks, and as it was obviously seriously injured the anglers despatched it.

Very soon afterwards one of the anglers hooked the shark, and a terrific struggle began. The shark was a powerful brute and fought with all his strength.

His runs, despite everything the angler could do, carried him a couple of hundred yards out.

The anglers were wondering whether the line would stand the strain when a pleasure motor launch came fussing along, and dove clean through the line, the shark getting away with a couple of hundred yards of it trailing from its jaws.—Reuter.

"FORBIDDING FORM" OF THE BIBLE

PREACHER DEPLORES METHOD OF PRINTING

CHAPTERS IN WRONG PLACE

London.

Dr. Dearmer, Canon of Westminster Abbey, believes that the make-up of a book is as important in its psychological effect on a reader as that of a newspaper. He declared in a sermon that the Bible is in this respect the worst printed of all books.

Dr. Dearmer was preaching on the "Bible As Poetry," and said that it was not surprising, in view of the "forbidding form" in which the Bible was printed, that its poetry was unknown to a great majority of people.

Forty years ago, he added, a great scholar had drawn attention to this. The present form of the bible was like binding up Tennyson, Bunyan, Macaulay and Shakespeare, in one volume, with the titles of all the poems and essays cut out, and names of speakers and divisions of speeches removed, as well as quotation marks.

The whole was then divided up into chapters which sometimes cut right across the meaning. The sentences were divided up simply to make them convenient for parsing. If the book were not read, those responsible for the printing were largely to blame.—Reuter.

BETTER HOMES FOR ISLANDERS.

Government Scheme In West Indies.

£100 HOUSES FOR LABOURERS

St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Ninety families in the Virgin Islands will own their own homes as the result of a $45,000 (£9,000) appropriation made by the Department of the Interior for better homes for needy Virgin Islanders.

Model homes will be built by the Insular Government at a cost of $500 (£100) each in the hope that island labourers will adopt them and do away with the miserable shacks in which many now live. Many of these houses will be built on Government-owned land recently purchased by a hotel company and be within the work of construction has already begun.—Reuter.

THE PRINCE CHARLIE OF CHINA

Members of the old Peking Court flock to join him. The Mongol princes keep in close touch. The Japanese, who are busy pacifying the country and conquering the provinces of Jehol to the south and incorporating it in the new State, maintain a watchful but benevolent eye on the young ruler. The Government consists mainly of Chinese, but the third official in every Ministry is a Japanese. The foreign policy of the State and its defence is wholly under Japanese control.

Restored To Monarchy.
And now at last the moment has come when the military oligarchy at Tokio have decided that Pu-yi may ascend his throne. Once again, after 23 years in the wilderness, he will be a reigning monarch. What of the future?

Japan still plans to extend the sphere of her influence on the mainland of Asia. The simplest method of doing so is to extend the boundaries of Manchukuo. The Mongols to the East are friendly to the new ruler; they may welcome incorporation in a Manchurian Empire. To the south things are growing worse for China proper. Royalist sentiment is strong in Fokien. To the north Japan has long cast covetous eyes on the maritime provinces of Russia and the great port of Vladivostok. Recently her covetousness has been reinforced by fear. Vladivostok is less than 800 miles from Tokio, and the Russians are reputed to have one of the strongest air forces in the world. The Japanese dread a sudden air attack from their old enemies. Russia is not ready for war. Her single line of communication from her new fastness in Europe to the Pacific is the Trans-Siberian railway. From Lake Baikal in Central Siberia, eastwards that railway

CALM VOYAGE WAS MONOTONOUS

65-Foot Mission Ship
At Victoria.

14,000-MILE TRIP ENDS

Victoria, B. C.

After a 14,000 mile voyage, during which "the weather was so fine that it was monotonous," in the words of its Minister-Captain, the 65-foot Mission ship "John Antle" has arrived here.

The sturdy little craft, commanded by the Reverend John Antle, anchored in Victoria Harbour 106 days after it sailed from London last August 1st.

She will be placed in service with the Columbia Coast Mission.

Built in 1921 by Messrs. John Thornicroft & Sons, the "John Antle" is a 36-ton motor yacht, driven by a 60 horsepower semi-diesel engine. She has a speed of about eight knots. Formerly the "Syrena," privately owned by a wealthy Greek, she was purchased in the Mediterranean last spring.—Reuter.

still consists of a single track, though feverish efforts were made last year to complete the doubling of the rails. Till that is done the Russian Army would be powerless to fight a modern war in the East, and during a Siberian winter the ground is frozen too hard for railway-building. But Japan, too, would be handicapped in a winter war. Her greatest asset is her fleet, and until March the Sea of Japan is frozen.

Some time in March the ice breaks and the ground thaws. The Russians will start with again on their railway. But the Japanese will have finished their work. Their feet will be ready to call.

Next month Pu-yi will ascend his throne. Will the first month of his reign see his kingdom plunged into a war?

ACCIDENT OUTSIDE NAVAL YARD.

Staff-Sergeant's Leg Fractured.

PENDING ACTION AGAINST MOTOR CYCLIST.

Chan Hay, a Chinese motorcyclist, who was summoned at the Central Police Court this morning for failing to exercise due care and caution while driving in Queen's Road East, near the Naval Yard entrance on February 10, was stated to have knocked down Staff-Sergeant Haines, who is at present in the Government Civil Hospital suffering from a fractured leg.

The defendant said that he was not insured against third party risks.

Mr. Hamilton — "Is not insurance compulsory?"

Traffic Inspector Nicol. — "No. Not in Hong Kong."

Mrs. Haines, who appeared in Court, intimated that legal proceedings were being taken out against the defendant. She was due to leave for England next Thursday, but her husband would remain.

Mr. Hamilton said that he would adjourn the summons

TURKS MUST GO TO BED EARLY

Amusements To Close At 11 P.M.

NEW GOVERNMENTAL ORDER

Istanbul.
Chukry Kaya Bey, the Minister for the Interior, is concerned about the Turkish people's sleep.

He has ordered all theatres, cinemas, and similar places of amusement to close at 11 p.m., so that people who go to work early in the morning shall be able to get a good night's rest after a show.

He says that at present Turkish theatre-goers are getting to bed at 1 a.m., and their health is suffering.

There has been an outcry against the Minister's order.

Cinema managers say that if they were to start their last performances earlier audiences would be much smaller. Businessmen who do not leave their office until 7 p.m. cannot have dinner, change and go to a show before 9.15 p.m.

Many people point out that the Government will lose a great deal in entertainment tax if the order is enforced.—Reuter.

Some die and that if Mr. Haines were compensated he would be lenient with the defendant.

PRISONER'S DEATH IN GAOL.

Verdict Of "Natural Causes."

A verdict of death from natural causes was returned by the jury at a Coroner's inquest held at the Central Police Court this morning into the death of Wong Wah Lin, a prisoner at Victoria Gaol, who died on February 14, from tuberculosis and beri-beri.

Mr. S. Balfour acted as Coroner and the jury comprised Messrs. T. B. Williams (foreman), R. T. Flanagan and Lo Kuen-mok.

The deceased was serving a term of three months' hard labour on a conviction for keeping a disorderly house and entered the Gaol on December 3 last. He fell ill on January 22 and was removed to the prison hospital, where he died on February 14.

Dr. G. V. A. Griffiths, medical officer of the prison, gave evidence as to the cause of death.
